(Armadale 1954, Article 7)

Foundation

Synod decides:

The foundation of churches will be the Holy Scriptures as they are confessed in The Three Forms of Unity: the Belgic Confession of Faith, the Heidelberg Catechism, and the Canons of Dort.

(Armadale 1954, Article 8)

(Albany 1987, Article 100)

Synod decides:

- a. To maintain our present text of the Apostles' Creed (which is identical to the text of the Book of Praise except for the omission of the word 'Christian' in the ninth article).
- b. To accept the revised text of the Athanasian Creed.
- c. To retain our present text of the Nicene Creed for the present and appoint deputies to scrutinise the revisions which our Canadian sister churches will adopt at their next Synod and report back to synod with their recommendations.

(Byford 1994, Article 124:2)

Synod decides:

To adopt the same translation of the Nicene Creed as adopted by our Canadian sister churches and found in the Book of Praise.

(West Albany 2000, Article 26)

Have the Rules for Synods as amended by (deputy) (3.3. of deputy's report) printed in these Acts.

OFFICES AND SUPERVISION OF DOCTRINE

ARTICLE 2 - The offices

The offices are those of the minister of the Word, of the elder, and of the deacon.

See under Article 19 for decisions made by Synod Rockingham 2003.

ARTICLE 3: The calling to office

A. All office-bearers

No one shall take any office upon himself without having been lawfully called thereto.

The calling to office shall take place by the consistory with the deacons, with the cooperation of the congregation, after prayer, and in accordance with the local regulations adopted for that purpose.

Prior to the ordination or installation, the names of the appointed brothers shall be publicly announced to the congregation for its approval on at least two consecutive Sundays. If no lawful objection is brought forward the ordination or installation shall take place with the use of the adopted Form.

B. Elders and deacons

The consistory with the deacons shall give the congregation the opportunity to draw the attention of the consistory to brothers deemed suitable for the respective offices.

The consistory with the deacons shall present to the congregation at the most twice as many candidates as there are vacancies to be filled. From this number the congregation shall choose as many office-bearers as are needed.

Those elected shall be appointed by the consistory with the deacons.

If necessary, the consistory and the deacons may present to the congregation the same number of candidates as there are vacancies.

C. Ministers

Before a vacant church extends a call the advice of the counsellor shall be sought.

The approval of classis shall be required for a repeated call to the same minister for the same vacancy.

Voting rights for women

Synod is of the opinion:

that the church in which this matter is an issue should table definitive proposals to Synod
(Armadale 1972, Article 21)

Synod decides:

not to adopt Launceston's proposal that "participation in the voting for the election of office bearers in the congregation of Christ should no longer be withheld from the communicant sisters".

(Launceston 1998, Article 99)

Form for the Ordination of Elders and Deacons

Synod decides:

1. To add the words "Encourage the congregation to" so that the charge to the deacons reads: "Encourage the congregation to do good to all men, especially to those of the household of faith".
2. To instruct Deputies for Relations with Sister Churches to inform the Canadian sister churches of this decision.

(Kelmscott 1996, Article 89)

ARTICLE 4 - Bound to a church

If there is a real possibility that the candidate concerned will be called by one of our churches this examination will have the standard and validity of the peremptory exam. In this case the preparatory exam will also include the subjects of the peremptory exam.

The examination will be conducted by the examiners in a meeting in which two churches are proportionally represented by at least four delegates, while the third Church Council, after having received a written report, has to give approval.

to re-affirm and re-state the decision of Synod 1970 Article 47, whereby 'Classis' is replaced by 'Synod' for preparatory and peremptory examinations and to amend the Rules for the examinations accordingly.

2. To concur with the Church of Albany that someone may only become eligible for the ministry according the provisions of CO Article 5, but Synod decides to agree with Classis South's proposal that, as an exception, a person trained with a Diploma of Theological Studies (plus special missiological, language and cultural studies) can be ordained as a minister of the Word (missionary) for foreign mission work only. Part of Classis South's proposal is that this person should undergo an examination by classis as agreed upon in the Church Order.
3. When agreeing with Classis South to an exceptional ordination of a minister of the Word (missionary) for foreign mission work only, this includes an exception to CO Article 15 by which ministers are normally bound for life.

When any such person presents himself for the ministry, classis shall (with synod's prior approval) examine him, and upon a favourable outcome allow him, as candidate, to speak an edifying word in the churches of the classis for a set period of time. Thereafter the classis shall further deal with him as it shall deem edifying, observing the ecclesiastical regulations adopted for this purpose.

Request in relation to Article 8 of the CO

2. to grant the request of the Church of Legana as formulated hereunder;
3. to appoint new deputies with the mandate:
 - a) to make arrangements, in addition to the regular pulpit exchange as proposed by deputies, for a visiting minister to serve the Church of Legana at least 6 times per year, two Sundays at a time;

(See under Article 19 for decisions made by Synod Rockingham 2003.)

The same obligation exists towards a minister's widow and orphans. The retirement of ministers shall take place with the approval of the consistory with the deacons and with the concurring advice of classis and the deputies of Synod.

(See Appendix I, Form 6)

Synod decides:

Decision 1

To amend Article 13 of the Church Order as follows:

If a minister of the Word retires by reason of age, or because he is rendered incapable of performing the duties of his office on account of sickness or otherwise, he shall retain the honour and title of minister of the Word. He shall also retain his official bond with the church which he served last and this church shall provide honourably for his support.

The same obligation exists towards a minister's widow and orphans.

Decision 2

To reject the addition of the words "The level of honourable support is the responsibility of the consistory" to Article 13 CO as proposed by Free Reformed Church of Mount Nasura (FRCMN).

Decision 3

To accept the addition of the words "The retirement of ministers shall take place with the approval of the consistory with the deacons and with the concurring advice of classis" to Art 13 CO as proposed by FRCMN.

Decision 4

ARTICLE 14 - Dismissal

The consistory with the deacons shall not dismiss a minister from his bond with the congregation without the approval of classis and the concurring advice of the deputies of synod.

ARTICLE 15 - Bound for life

A minister of the Word, once lawfully called, is bound to the service of the church for life and therefore not allowed to enter upon another vocation unless it is for exceptional and substantial reasons. The decision of his consistory to relieve him of his office in order to enter upon another vocation shall receive the approval of classis, with the concurring advice of deputies of synod.

ARTICLE 16 - Task of ministers

The task of ministers is to faithfully lead in prayer, preach the Word and administer the sacraments. They shall watch over their fellow office-bearers and over the congregation. Together with the elders they shall exercise church discipline and see to it that everything is done decently and in good order.

ARTICLE 17 - Training for the ministry

The churches shall support or, if possible, maintain an institution for the training for the ministry. The task of the professors of theology is to expound the Holy Scriptures and to defend the sound doctrine against heresies and errors, so that the churches may be provided with ministers of the Word who are able to fulfil the duties of their office as they have been described above. The churches together are obliged to provide for the professors of theology and for their widows and orphans.

Synod decides:

1. Synod thanks the deputies for the work done.
2. Synod decides to assess the churches $ 40.00 per communicant member per year, for the maintenance of the Theological College in Hamilton as of 1 July 2000.
3. Synod decides to discharge deputies and to appoint new deputies with the mandate to:
 - a. collect funds for 'Hamilton' and forward them to the College;
 - b. continue correspondence with both 'Hamilton' and 'Kampen' in order to maintain contact and obtain information;
 - c. ensure that relevant information is published concerning the training for the ministry, so that the churches understand the need to support the colleges and the training of the students;
 - d. continue to arrange the support of theological students whenever required in accordance with Article 18 CO, and as agreed in Article 50 of Acts of Synod 1992;
 - e. make arrangements for a guest lecturer from 'Hamilton' once every four or five years;
 - f. to investigate the long-term possibility of setting up theological training in Australia, including the possibility of starting a theological library.

(West Albany 2000, Article 25)

Synod decides:

1. to forward the money collected thus far to the library fund of the Hamilton Theological College (Appeal 2);
2. to recognise that establishing an own seminary is out of reach for both the present time and the foreseeable future (Ground 3.1);
3. to recognise that establishing a library should occur simultaneously with the establishing of a seminary (Ground 3.2).

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art 16)

Synod decides:

1. To continue to request three full collections from the churches for our own theological library.
2. Request the churches to contribute A$50 per communicant member per annum for theological training. Any expenses for theological training here in Australia will be taken out of this amount. The remainder goes to Hamilton.
3. Set aside $3,500 for travelling and accommodation costs of a delegate of Deputies for Training for the Ministry to attend a meeting of Hamilton's Board of Governors in September 2007, combining it with a visit to the next Synod of the Canadian Reformed Church (this coordination means that this time a deputy for training for the ministry goes to Canada in both capacities and next time a deputy for sister churches attends in both capacities).
4. Discharge Deputies and appoint new deputies, including a Minister of the Word, with the mandate to:
 - a. collect funds for "Hamilton" and forward them to the College;
 - b. correspond with "Hamilton", "South Africa", "Kampen" and "Korea" in order to maintain contact and obtain information;
 - c. collect funds for our own theological library and theological training;
 - d. continue with our own theological library and start obtaining basic materials;
 - e. continue to investigate the possibility to start up our own theological training for the ministry, including the possibilities of theological training by extension (IT);

- f. ensure that relevant information is published concerning the training for the ministry, so that the churches understand the need to support the colleges and the training of the students;
- g. continue to arrange the support of theological students whenever required in accordance with Article 18 CO, and as agreed in Article 50 of Acts of Synod 1992 as amended by Article 56 of Acts of Synod 1994;
- h. make arrangements for a guest lecturer from one of the theological seminaries of our sister churches once every three years;
- i. be as closely involved in the work of the Board of Governors of Hamilton as practically possible;
- j. consider the practical implications of including the Australian churches in the Pastoral Training Program of the Hamilton College and report to the Australian Churches.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art 17)

Synod decides:

- 13.1 Request the churches to contribute A$65 per communicant member per annum for the maintenance of Hamilton as from 1 January 2009.
- 13.2 Set aside $6,000 from general Synod funds for the costs of a visit to Australia by a guest lecturer from Hamilton or Kampen, together with his wife.
- 13.3 Set aside $3,500 from general Synod funds for travelling and accommodation costs of a delegate of Deputies to attend a meeting of Hamilton's Board of Governors in September 2009 (40th Anniversary of College).

 - c. continue to collect funds for theological training, but discontinue the collection of funds for our own theological library;
 - d. continue with our own theological library;
 - e. continue to ensure that relevant information is published concerning the training for the ministry, so that the churches understand the need to support the colleges and the training of the students;

3. Set aside $4,000 (currently $3,000) from General Synod funds for travelling and accommodation costs of a delegate of Deputies to attend a meeting of Hamilton's Board of Governors and the Convocation between Synod 2012 and Synod 2015.

 - d. continue to correspond with CRTS;
 - e. continue to collect funds for the support of theological students;
 - f. review the current system of funding for students with respect to its effectiveness in supporting and encouraging students;
 - g. consider and implement new ways to promote the study for the ministry among young men, such as through the local John Calvin schools, local churches and the involvement of local pastors;
 - h. to meet periodically with prospective and current theological students to have good oversight over their education;
 - i. investigate and report on the applicability of a ministry internship model, taking into consideration models for theological training used by our sister churches (e.g., RCNZ);
 - j. continue to arrange the support of theological students whenever required, in accordance with Art 18 CO, and as agreed in Art 50 of the Acts of Synod 1992 (as amended by Art 56 of Acts of Synod 1994);

(Bunbury 2018, Article 90)

Synod decides:

1. To mandate deputies to develop a strategic long term plan for a future Australian Reformed Theological Seminary that is feasible, affordable, and specific, with a vision toward 2040.
2. For the purpose of developing this plan the deputies are mandated:

- a. to further consult with churches in the Asia Pacific region with whom we have contact regarding their interest in and the potential benefits of an accredited theological seminary which serves us and the AsiaPacific region;
 - b. to outline the steps to be taken, including an estimated timeframe, for establishing a seminary, either:
 - i. as an affiliate of CRTS;
 - ii. as a seminary accredited under the Australian College of Theology;
 - iii. as an independently accredited ARTS;
 - iv. established in phases, as outlined in the proposal of FRC Armadale;
 - c. to estimate the costs to:
 - i. establish a seminary; and
 - ii. maintain a seminary consisting of twelve students and four professors;
 - d. to determine whether there is broad support from the churches for this plan as it develops; and
 - e. to identify and monitor the factors that are obstacles to accomplishing this vision.
 3. Subject to need, deputies may engage a consultant to assist them in this task.
 4. To mandate deputies to inform the CRTS Board of Governors that the FRCA would accept an advisory committee form of governance if this is offered.
 5. To make use of funds previously levied from the churches if and when this is required, but not to impose any further levy for the next three years.
- (Darling Downs 2024, Article 70)*

Synod decides to:

1. request the churches to contribute AU$110 per communicant member for 2025, for the maintenance of the CRTS, and for each subsequent year to contribute at a level per communicant member that maintains parity with the contributions of the CanRC;
2. approve the proposed budget for the 2024-2027 period, namely $14,000, consisting of:
 - $7,500 for a guest lecturer from the CRTS;
 - $4,000 for a deputy to represent FRCA and attend the CRTS convocation and Board of Governor's meeting in the next three-year term; and
 - $2,500 for the promotion of the ministry of the gospel amongst eligible men through means of a conference held during the intersynodical period 2024-2027;
3. adopt the recommended changes to the Australian Guidelines for the Pastoral Training Program;
4. thank the deputies for their work, discharge them and appoint new deputies with a mandate to:
 - a. oversee the Hamilton Theological Fund;
 - b. arrange a guest lecturer from CRTS during the next inter-synodical period;
 - c. arrange a deputy to attend the CRTS convocation and Board of Governor's meeting in the next inter-synodical period;
 - d. arrange the financial matters associated with hosting a conference every inter-synodical period;
 - e. liaise periodically with both prospective and current theological students to provide encouragement and support and to have good oversight of their education;

 - g. stay as actively involved as possible in the work of the CRTS Board of Governors;
 - h. convey congratulatory messages and words of support and encouragement on special occasions;
 - i. collect and disburse funds for the PTP;
 - j. oversee the Library and the Library Fund;
 - k. promote the CRTS within the FRCA;
 - l. promote the study for ministry among prospective men in whatever way possible; and

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 82)

GGRI – Theological Training

Synod Decides:

1. To mandate deputies to continue to support theological training for the GGRI and make funds available for this cause, following the Guidelines for Deputies found in Article 86 of the Acts of Synod 2003. In addition, to submit a budget, proposed assessment, financial reports, and annual auditor's reports to the local churches and Synod 2021.
2. Not to provide funds for the building of a new campus for the STT-GGRI at this time but to mandate deputies to consider the best way to responsibly provide financial support for theological training for the GGRI.
3. To mandate deputies to find a local church to assume responsibility for the financial support of theological training for the GGRI following Synod 2021 and to ensure a smooth transition to this new arrangement.
4. To encourage the Board of Governors at STT-GGRI (Sumba) to seek the assistance of an external advisor in the person of Rev A VanDelden.
5. To financially support two students/ministers to come to Australia during the inter-synodical period to study English and familiarise themselves with the FRCA for three months, subject to available funding from our churches.

(Bunbury 2018, Article 96)

ARTICLE 18 - Students of theology

The churches shall strive to ensure that there are students of theology, extending financial aid where necessary.

Financial aid

Synod decides:

2. to adopt the "Regulations for the financial aid of students (Article 19 CO)" and the "Rules for Students Support Fund" as prepared by deputies and amended by synod.

(Launceston 1987, Article 82)

Synod considers:

2. The FRCA support their students during the course of their study, stipulating that repayment of such cost is waived if students serve overseas sister-churches upon being ordained to the Ministry.

(Armada 1990, Article 86)

"Mother church"

Synod decides:

2. Deputies for Training for the Ministry be given a mandate to clarify which is the "mother church" in regard to a student who has been a member of more than one congregation.

(Byford 1994, Article 56)

Edifying word

Synod decides:

1. To grant permission to speak an edifying word/preaching consent in the churches to theological students who satisfy the following set conditions:
 - a. the theological students shall present such a request to Classis,
 - b. they shall have completed at least two years of theological studies at one of the theological colleges of our sister churches (not including the introductory year, that is, they still complete three years of training at the theological college). The faculty of the theological college shall give a certificate that they have successfully completed two years of theology proper (or three years),
 - c. they shall present a good attestation from the church to which they belong,
 - d. they shall deliver a sermon at Classis and shall be examined on reformed doctrine, and,
 - e. if the result is satisfactory Classis shall grant permission to speak an edifying word (sometimes called preaching consent) for a period not more than twelve months.
2. To accept the decision of classes of sister churches to grant theological students the right to speak an edifying word/preaching consent in the churches here and to allow these students to deliver an edifying word in the churches. They must present a certificate from the Classis of the sister church.
3. The student shall submit his sermons to a minister appointed by Deputies for the Training to the Ministry who in turn will give a report to the Professor of Diaconology at the theological college.

(Kelmescott 1996, Article 27, amended after Synod West Albany 2000's decision form classes, Acts Article 43)

III. Decision:

Synod decides:

To adopt the proposal of Classis North, as amended, as the way to deal with requests for extending permission to speak an edifying word (sometimes called preaching consent) and consider it as an extension of Synod 1996 decision Acts Article 27 as amended by Synod 2000 Article 43

(Armada 2012, Article 103)

IV. Decision – Needy Student Fund

Synod decides to:

5. Mandate deputies to continue to assess the churches and oversee the Needy Student Fund for the support of theological students.

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 82)

V. Decision – Pastoral Training Program (PTP)

Synod decides to:

6. Mandate the deputies to:
 - a. support students who fulfil the PTP Internship in Australia for up to 12 weeks; and
 - b. assess the churches for the costs of the PTP.
7. Adopt the updated PTP guidelines (refer Appendix 2).

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 82)

VI. Decision – Vicariate Model

Synod decides to:

8. Adopt the proposed Vicariate Guidelines for implementation beginning in 2025 (refer Appendix 3).
9. Mandate the deputies to manage the vicariate in accordance with the adopted guidelines.

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 82)

VII. Decision – Number of Deputies

Synod decides to:

10. Appoint seven deputies and three alternates in one deputyship for the training for the ministry.
11. This Deputyship can organise itself, if it sees fit to do so, in separate sections under the conditions:
 - a. that the entire deputyship remains ultimately responsible for the functioning of the sections;
 - b. every section reports on its activities to the entire deputyship at least once a year; and
 - c. the entire deputyship meets at least once a year, to exchange information between the sections and supervise the work of each section.

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 82)

ARTICLE 19 - Task of Missionaries

When ministers of the Word are sent out as missionaries, they shall in the specific region assigned to them proclaim the Word of God, administer the sacraments to those who have come to the profession of their faith, teaching them to observe all that Christ has commanded His church, and ordain elders and deacons when this appears feasible, according to the rules given in the Word of God.

Indigenous Missionary Ministers of the Word

Synod decides:

not to change the Church Order but to add the following rule to those adopted by Synod 1970, Article 47:

iv. Regarding indigenous men called to do mission work overseas, and who have not studied at the theological college of our sister churches, they shall be examined by the classis prior to ordination. Their calling and task as Minister of the Word shall be limited to the area to which they were indigenous.

(West Albany 2000, Article 55)

Term Missionary

Synod decides:

To make a new ruling in the line of Article 55 Synod 2000:

1. As an exception, a person trained with a Diploma of Theological Studies (plus special missiological, language and cultural studies) can be ordained as a minister of the Word (missionary) for foreign mission work only.
2. That this person should undergo an examination by classis as agreed upon in the Church Order.
3. That upon completion of this missionary task he will be released from office by the sending church and the classis, at which time he will lose his ministerial status.

(Rockingham 2003, Article 36)

Synod decides:

1. To concur with the Church of Albany by deciding that as churches we do not recognize the position of "term missionary" as a fourth office among the churches.
2. To concur with the Church of Albany that someone may only become eligible for the ministry according the provisions of CO Article 5, but Synod decides to agree with Classis South's proposal that, as an exception, a person trained with a Diploma of Theological Studies (plus special missiological, language and cultural studies) can be ordained for foreign mission work only. Part of Classis South's proposal is that this person should undergo an examination by classis as agreed upon in the Church Order.
3. When agreeing with Classis South to an exceptional ordination of a minister of the Word (missionary) for foreign mission work only, this includes an exception to CO Article 15 by which ministers are normally bound for life.

(Rockingham 2003, Article 36)

ARTICLE 20 - Task of elders

The elders shall together with the ministers of the Word govern the congregation with pastoral care and discipline. For the building up of the congregation they shall make home-visits as often as is profitable but at least once a year. They shall watch that their fellow office-bearers are faithful in carrying out their duties and ensure that in the congregation everything is done decently and in good order.

Form for the Ordination of Elders and Deacons

See under Article 3 of the Church Order for the decision made by Synod Kelmscott 1996, Article 89.

ARTICLE 21 - Task of deacons

The deacons shall perform the ministry of mercy. They shall acquaint themselves with difficulties; visit, help and encourage where there is need, and urge church members to render assistance where necessary. They shall collect and manage the gifts of the congregation, and, after mutual consultation, distribute them where there is need. The deacons shall give account of their policies and management to the consistory.

Form for the Ordination of Elders and Deacons

See under Article 3 of the Church Order for the decision made by Synod Kelmscott 1996, Article 89.

ARTICLE 22 - Equality of respective duties

In the local congregation equality shall be maintained among the ministers, among the elders, and among the deacons, regarding their respective duties, and in other matters, as much as possible.

ARTICLE 23 - Term of office

The elders and deacons shall serve two or more years according to local regulations, and a proportionate number shall retire each year. The places of the retiring office-bearers shall be taken by others unless the consistory with the deacons judges that the circumstances and the well-being of the church render it advisable to call them into office again. In that case the rule of Article 3 shall be observed.

ARTICLE 24 - Subscription to the Confession by ministers and teaching staff

A minister of the Word and all teaching staff at the theological seminary shall subscribe to the Three Forms of Unity of the Free Reformed Churches of Australia by signing the Form(s) adopted for that purpose. Anyone refusing to subscribe in that manner shall not be ordained or installed in office. Anyone who, being in office, refuses to do so shall because of that very fact be immediately suspended from office by the consistory, and classis shall not receive him. If he obstinately persists in his refusal he shall be deposed from office.

Subscription Form adopted by Synod Kelmscott 1983 (Article 48)

ARTICLE 25 - Subscription to the Confession by elders and deacons

Elders and deacons shall also subscribe to these Three Forms of Unity by signing the Form adopted for that purpose. Anyone being in office who refuses to do so shall because of that very fact be immediately suspended from office by the consistory. If he obstinately persists in his refusal he shall be deposed from office.

Subscription Form as adopted by Synod Kelmscott 1983 (Article 48)

ARTICLE 26 - False doctrine

To ward off false doctrines and errors the ministers and elders shall use the means of instruction, of refutation, of warning and of admonition, in the ministry of the Word as well as in Christian teaching and family visiting.

ARTICLE 27 - Office-bearers and the government

The office-bearers shall impress upon the congregation its obligation to be obedient and show respect to the government, because God has instituted it. They must set a good example in this regard and by means of proper communication invoke the government to protect the ministry of the church.

Synod decides:

not to appoint new deputies for correspondence with the government. It considered that the local church is in a better position to correspond with the State Government, and that, if there is a need to correspond with the Federal Government, the approach should be made through the local member of Federal Parliament, who can take it up on behalf of the local church.

(Kelmscott 1983, Article 113)

II ASSEMBLIES

ARTICLE 28 - The ecclesiastical assemblies

Three kinds of ecclesiastical assemblies shall be maintained: the consistory, the classis, and the synod.

ARTICLE 29 - Proceedings

The proceedings of all assemblies shall begin and end with prayer.

ARTICLE 30 - Authority of the assemblies

These assemblies shall only deal with ecclesiastical matters and in an ecclesiastical manner. A major assembly shall deal only with matters which could not be finished in the minor assembly or which belong to its churches in common. A new matter may be put on its agenda only when the minor assembly has dealt with it.

Synod decides:

to remind the churches that, in accordance with Article 30 CO, matters which pertain to the churches in general should not be added to the Agenda by instruction.

(Launceston 1978, Art. 22)

Synod decides:

While it may be true that the last sentence of Article 30 was inadvertently added to the Church Order without considering its impact, the way to remedy the situation is not to make a synod decision which overrides the Church Order.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 20)

Synod decides:

A decision made by one synod (concerning the PCEA) does not oblige a subsequent synod to follow the same path.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 22)

Synod decides:

Late submissions are declared inadmissible.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 80)

Synod decides (in relation to a proposal for a "Safe Church Standing Committee"):

1. To acknowledge the importance of handling child abuse situations in a faithful and godly way.
2. Not to accede to the proposal from Classis North.

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 76)

ARTICLE 31 - Appeals

If anyone complains that he has been wronged by the decision of a minor assembly he shall have the right of appeal to the major assembly; and whatever may be agreed upon by a majority vote shall be considered settled and binding, unless it is proved to be in conflict with the Word of God or with the Church Order.

Synod decides:

Article 31 of the Church Order gives anyone who has been wronged by a decision of a minor assembly the right of appeal to the major assembly.

(Launceston 1998, Art. 48, Ground 1)

Synod decides:

From the fact that the FRCs of Byford, Rockingham, Mount Nasura and Kelmscott appealed Synod 2000, Art. 93 decision (to declare RCNZ true churches) shows that appeals from individual churches direct to synod are considered admissible.

(Rockingham 2003, Art. 44, 48, 49, 53)

Synod decides:

Re: Regulations of Classis North

7. The church order states that only matters that cannot be completed in the minor assembly are to be dealt with at the major assembly. Thus an appeal to Classis should only be sent once the matter has been fully dealt with at the consistory level. Under the appeal regulations of Classis North (Art 6.1.2.3), the appellant may continue to interact with the consistory and vice versa after the matter has been appealed to the Classis. In this way there is also interaction regarding the appeal before Classis is convened.

(Rockingham 2003, Art. 125)

Synod decides:

Major assemblies may appoint advisory committees to hear appellants and those appealed against when there is a dispute.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 18, summary of grounds)

Synod decides:

A brother lodges an appeal re Classis Regulations. It is declared admissible on the basis that: The appellant feels aggrieved by the decisions of classis and therefore has the right to be heard by the major assembly.

(Rockingham 2003, Art. 121. See also Art. 122-126 and appeals by individuals and churches against a classis decision Art. 153-161)

Synod decides:

An appeal from FRC West Kelmscott is declared inadmissible. Ground: On the basis of Article 33 CO "Matters once decided upon may not be proposed again unless they are substantiated by new grounds".

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 16)

Synod decides:

An appeal from FRC Mount Nasura re Art 14 Synod Rockingham 2003 is declared admissible. Ground: "This submission is from the churches and allowed by the Church Order."

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 18)

Synod decides:

Appeal of Br 'tHart against Classis South is declared admissible.

Not to acceded to the appeal." Grounds: 1. "Classis South was correct in deciding that Br. P. 'tHart was appealing a synodical decision and that therefore his appeal should have been directed to Synod. 2. The appellant must first show that Synod Rockingham erred for only if Synod erred did consistory err in implementing Synod's decision. Therefore an appeal to Synod logically precedes an appeal to classis for implementing Synod's decisions."

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 19)

Synod decides:

A court of appeal (like an appeal church) which stands between classis and synod is not needed in our church federation.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 32)

Synod decides:

Appeals are inadmissible if synod is not convinced that there are new grounds.

Appeals, whether from a church or an individual church member, are admissible if they deal with decisions of the previous synod.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 62)

Synod decides:

Synod should judge certain appeals:

Decisions made by synod in response to appeals are not binding on the churches but concern only the people who appealed:

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art 111)

Synod decides:

not to sustain the appeal by FRC Kelmscott re Art 24, sub XI 3b of Acts of Synod Legana 2009, because no new grounds were provided.

(Armada 2012, Art, 18)

Appeal or Objection to a Retired Minister Delegated to Synod

Synod decides:

To deny the appeal.

(Baldivis 2015, Art. 20)

Appeal of FRC Busselton (Refer Art 109)

Synod decides:

Only those are allowed to vote on the appeal of Busselton who are not personally involved with this matter, which means the delegate from Busselton and the delegates from Classis South West who previously decided on this matter.

(Baldivis 2015, Art. 106)

Synod decided to declare three appeals inadmissible and gave the following grounds (directives) for interpreting the Church Order articles 30 and 31 and guiding future appeals from individual church members:

1. According to Church Order articles 30 and 31, individuals who wish to interact with decisions of Synod should begin by addressing their consistories. The local consistory, if they concur with the concerns, may direct an appeal to synod. If the local consistory does not take over the individual's appeal, he can appeal the local consistory's decision to classis and thus begin the appeal process in accordance with article 31 of the Church Order. This procedure was not followed by the appellant.
2. Article 30 of the Church Order provides clarity on what defines an ecclesiastical matter and what should be dealt with at the broader assemblies. Article 31 of the Church Order deals exclusively with the appeal process. Article 31 states clearly, "if anyone complains that he has been wronged by the decision of a minor assembly, he shall have the right to appeal to the major assembly." For the individual, his local consistory is the minor assembly. When the consistory accepts a decision of a synod, the individual's appeal is against the consistory and, therefore, article 31 directs his subsequent appeal to the broader assembly of classis, and then synod.

3. The appellant makes reference to an apparent precedent set by Synod West Kelmscott 2006 in articles 19 and 62. Synod 2006 admitted as admissible some appeals from individuals about matters in common. However, Synod 2018 judges that admissibility must be governed by reference to the Church Order, not historical precedent.

(Bunbury 2018, Articles 76, 77, 78)

ARTICLE 32 - Credentials and voting

Delegates to a major assembly shall bring with them their credentials, signed by the minor assembly. They shall have a vote in all matters except those in which either they themselves or their churches are directly involved.

Voting

Synod decides:

According to Article 32 CO delegates should refrain from voting if a matter concerns themselves personally or if it concerns a matter of their own local church.

(Albany 1987, Article 37)

Synod decides (on an appeal):

1. Synod acknowledges the biblical norm of impartiality in decision-making.
2. The appeal against the decision of Classis North October 2022 is denied.

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 51)

ARTICLE 33 - Proposals

Matters once decided upon may not be proposed again unless they are substantiated by new grounds.

Synod decides:

It is the duty of the appellants to demonstrate that there are new grounds.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art 62, Proposal 5)

ARTICLE 34 - Chairman and clerk

In all assemblies there shall be a chairman and a clerk. The chairman's task is to present and explain clearly the matters to be dealt with and ensure that everyone observes due order in speaking; he shall deny the floor to those who argue about minor things or who let themselves be carried away and cannot control their emotions, and discipline those who refuse to listen. His task shall cease when the assembly ends. The clerk shall keep an accurate record of all things worthy of being recorded.

Synod decides:

A committee will be instructed to maintain indices of synod decisions.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 25)

ARTICLE 35 - Jurisdiction

The classis has the same jurisdiction over the consistory as the synod has over the classis.

ARTICLE 36 - Consistory

In all churches there shall be a consistory composed of the minister(s) of the Word and the elders. It shall meet regularly and as a rule be chaired by the minister. If a church is served by more than one minister they shall chair in turn. The consistory shall also meet regularly with the deacons to deal with those matters as described for that purpose by the Church Order, and further with all things which the consistory considers necessary for general management, including the material affairs of the church.

Synod decides:

To add the clause "as a rule" to art. 36 CO. The first two sentences will then read as follows:

"In all churches there shall be a consistory composed of the minister(s) of the Word and the elders. It shall meet regularly and as a rule be chaired by the minister."

(Bunbury 2018, Article 100)

ARTICLE 37 - Consistory and the deacons

Where the number of elders and deacons is small the deacons may be added to the consistory by local arrangement. This shall invariably be done where there are less than three elders and less than three deacons. In these circumstances matters pertaining to supervision and discipline shall be handled with the advice of the deacons and matters pertaining to the office of deacons with the advice of the elders.

ARTICLE 38 - Constitution of a consistory

If a consistory is to be instituted for the first time or anew, the advice of classis shall be sought.

ARTICLE 39 - Places without a consistory

Places where as yet no consistory can be instituted shall be assigned by classis to the care of a neighbouring consistory.

Work among the 'scattered'.

Synod decides:

1. to alter the decision of Synod 1954, Article 20 sub 2, regarding the official care for the scattered brothers and sisters;
2. and not to advise the consistories concerning the ecclesiastical position of the scattered.
(Albany 1959, Article 27).

ARTICLE 40 - Meetings of deacons

The deacons shall meet regularly to deal with the matters pertaining to their office. Their meetings shall begin and end with prayer.

ARTICLE 41 - Classis

Neighbouring churches shall come together in a classis by delegating a minister and an elder, or if a church has no minister, two elders. Classis shall convene at least once every six months in person. The ministers shall be chairman in rotation, or one shall be chosen to be chairman; however, the same minister shall not be chairman twice in succession. The chairman shall ask whether the ministry of the office-bearers is being continued, whether the decisions of the major assemblies are being honoured and whether there is any matter in which the consistories need the judgment and help of classis for the proper government of their church. Every classis shall determine where and when the churches shall meet again. The last classis before synod shall choose delegates to that synod.

Classes

Synod decides:

2. To establish two classes instead of one.
3. To change Article 41 Church Order so that it reads "Classis shall convene at least once every six months in person ..."

(West Albany 2000, Article 43)

Synod decides:

Synod takes note of the submission of Classis South and decides to amend the Rules for Synod 2 as follows: in the event that three Classes will be instituted, the delegation to Synod for each Classis will be three ministers and three elders.

(Legana 2009, Article 18)

Needy churches

Synod decides:

To thank the deputies for their work done and to discharge them.
To pass the report of deputies on to the classes.

(West Albany 2000, Article 44)

Appeal regarding the "scope of classis"

Synod decides:

To deny the appeal of Busselton. to review Article 11 of Classis Southwest, October 2013 and rule that:

1. A major assembly should never take over the task which a minor assembly should do. In this case a classis took over the task which the minor assembly, the consistory, should do, or in the case of the appellants, should be asked to complete. This is based on the church orderly rule that a major assembly should never assume tasks which can and should be completed by the minor assembly (cf. Art 30 CO).
2. This decision of Classis is in fact not a judgement on a consistory decision, but an ethical ruling; and
3. Classis may not lord it over the churches, and in this decision Classis oversteps the boundaries of its jurisdiction, by doing something it was not allowed to do; making a binding statement on an ethical issue none of the churches had asked for.

(Baldivis 2015, Article 109)

ARTICLE 42 - Ministers who are not delegated to a classis

If two or more ministers are serving the same church, those who have not been delegated shall have the right to attend classis in an advisory capacity.

ARTICLE 43 - Counsellors

Each vacant church shall request classis to appoint as counsellor the minister it desires as such, to the end that he may assist the consistory in maintaining good order and especially may lend his aid in the matter of the calling of a minister; he shall sign the letter of call.

ARTICLE 44 - Church visitors

Each year classis shall authorise at least two of the more experienced and able ministers to visit the churches in that year. If necessary, the classis may authorise a capable elder to carry out this task together with a minister. It shall be the task of these visitors to inquire whether all things are regulated and done in full harmony with the Word of God, whether the office-bearers fulfil the duties of their office faithfully as they have promised, and whether the Church Order is being observed and maintained in every respect, in order that they may in good time fraternally admonish those who are found negligent in anything, and that by their good counsel and advice all things may be directed towards the edification and preservation of Christ's church. They shall submit written reports of their visits to classis.

ARTICLE 45 - Synod

The synod shall be held every three years. As long as there are two classes, each classis shall delegate four ministers and four elders. In the event that there are three classes, each classis shall delegate three ministers and three elders. At the close of synod the time and place for the next synod shall be determined and a church shall be appointed to convene it. A synod shall be convened before the appointed time for extraordinary reasons at the request of two classes. Its time and place shall be decided by the church appointed as convening church for the next regular synod.

(Launceston 1985, Article 74 sub I)

Synod decides:

All Deputies will work under one umbrella. The various Deputies will do their own work and are responsible for their own report to Synod. The three deputyships (for Sister Churches, Other Churches [Reformed], and Other Churches [Presbyterian] respectively, Ed.) will meet together as needed to inform and consult with each other regarding their work. - b. to distribute the mail,
- c. to act as recording clerk for the combined meetings, and

Synod decides:

To adopt the proposed changes to the Guidelines for Support:

1. There shall be good consultation and as much cooperation as possible with churches in our own bond and sister churches who offer support to the same churches. Such consultation and cooperation should also extend to aid organisations (from within our churches/sister churches) who offer support to these churches. Care should be taken not to duplicate support that may already be given by other organizations.
2. Each request for support must as much as possible be channelled via the respective deputies of their churches. Support will be sent as much as possible via these deputies. Our deputies are responsible for proper distribution of funds.

3. Each project must build up the biblical, reformed character of church-life, or help overcome impediments in church-life.
4. Each request for support should be well documented and include:
 - i. What initiative and responsibility the requesting party takes;
 - ii. What purpose the project has;
 - iii. What length of time it will take;
 - iv. And the expected goal of the project.
5. Support given must keep in mind certain practical principles:
 - i. Support shall be directed as a matter of preference to the whole bond of churches rather than to specific churches or to individuals;
 - ii. Support should occur only if the supporting church(es) cannot reasonably be expected to do it, and if the support is essential or important for building up church-life;
 - iii. Support should respect and maintain the responsibility of the churches supported;
 - iv. Support should help to activate churches rather than make them inactive;
 - v. Support should aim to make itself superfluous, i.e. not become permanent;
 - vi. Support must not engender jealousies, i.e. it must be given evenly and consistent with that offered to other parties;
 - vii. Support should be aimed at the spiritual level of those supported;
 - viii. Support should be in agreement with the laws of the country, unless those laws conflict with the Word of God;
 - ix. And support should be supervised, and an accounting including an evaluation of its effectiveness should be given.
6. The deputies at home shall keep the churches, which offer this support informed so that support can also be accompanied with prayer for these churches. Such information should be offered at the start of a project, during the time a project is in progress and at its completion. At its completion an evaluation of the project can be given.
7. The deputies shall report to the next synod about any support given.
8. The deputies will have an independent, competent third party audit its books and this audit will be passed on to the churches.

that our recognition of another church as being "true and faithful church of the Lord Jesus Christ"

1. means that both our churches and that recognized church stand on the foundations as expressed in Article 27 to 32 of the Belgic Confession;

2. has a direct consequence that a sister church relationship can be established, without disregarding the fact that historical developments may well give cause to several stumbling blocks still lying in the road to a practical realization of unity;
3. and that our church members join that church, and vice versa, in the case that such church is their nearest church, in accordance with Article 28 of the Belgic Confession.

(Launceston 1985, Article 67)

Synod decides [in response to an appeal]:

The declaration regarding the meaning and implications of recognising a church as “true and faithful church” (Synod Launceston 1985, Article 67) is maintained.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 59)

Criteria for Church Relations

Synod decides:

1. In our contact with another church, each of the three following criteria must be met to determine whether or not to proceed to a sister church relationship:
 - a) Faithful. The church must be a true church faithful to Scriptures and bearing the marks of the church (BC Art 29):
“The true church is to be recognized by the following marks: It practises the pure preaching of the gospel. It maintains the pure administration of the sacraments as Christ instituted them. It exercises church discipline for correcting and punishing sins. In short, it governs itself according to the pure Word of God, rejecting all things contrary to it and regarding Jesus Christ as the only Head.”
 This criterion is mandatory for all church relationships.
 - b) Meaningful. A church relationship must have a purpose and substance to it. The following identifies such purposes:
 - i. Catholic. The first purpose is, of course, to maintain the unity of faith and recognise the catholicity of the church. It is an expression of putting into practice Christ’s high priestly prayer of John 17, Eph 4:4 and Art 27 BC.
 - ii. Historical. Historical church relations involve those that we have recognised from across the world with whom we share a common history or with whom we have had relations over a considerably long period of time. We have come to know these brothers and sisters and share in the struggle of faith to live before the Lord, show thankfulness for the grace and unity in Christ, and together fight the secularity in the world around us. As we have grown over many years and decades in getting to know and interact with our historic sister churches, we build up a responsibility and obligation to these brothers and sisters in mutual assistance in the struggle of faith. These are not contacts that are broken off lightly or easily.
 - iii. Need for mutual assistance. There may be requests for assistance from other churches or we may require assistance from other churches. These are opportunities that need to be examined to decide if a church relationship provides an appropriate foundation to respond to and assist in such requests. Kamphuis (p. 204) comments that churches need to bear each other’s burdens and assist each other, not just when asked to help.
 - iv. Ability to communicate. Being able to communicate, and that on a regular basis, is important to be engage with each other and be mutually active in maintaining the rules for relations. Such interaction should preferably be face to face and include visits, meetings, sharing information with each other and informing our own churches. Are we able to maintain a reasonable level of communication? If there are differences in language and culture, is it possible to translate written material and have effective communication in meetings to engage and understand each other?
 - v. Level of interaction. What is the current level of interaction of our churches and members with these churches? Is there regular contact between individual churches in either bond? Are there activities happening between the churches at the local level? Are there interactions among individual members including

- visiting, attending worship services, and sharing in common struggles and challenges of faith? Even if only one or a few local churches or a few individuals are engaged, this small level of interaction may be a reason to have a church relationship that is maintained by the FRCA bond.
- vi. Cooperation in mission. There may be churches with whom we may come into contact via mission work, conduct mission work in regions near our own mission fields, or are the result of mission work that we have been involved with in the past. Church relations with them may be beneficial in order to work together with them on the mission fields and/or help each other for mutual encouragement and exhortation.
 - vii. Church polity. Although different churches have different histories that have led to differences in church polity and practice, the need to mutually struggle to maintain our reformed heritage and build on how the Lord has guided and led His church through church history is important. We need to stand on Scripture and what our church fathers have fought for to maintain a true and faithful church of Christ. Differences in church policy such as reformed and Presbyterian as long as they are based on the foundation of Scripture and reformed confessions, need not be an obstacle to unity. There may need to be patience and encouragement to acknowledge that there are differences in history and practice and we need to learn from each other and grow. With churches of similar polity and worship to our own, our relationship with them may be deeper and more meaningful as a result.
 - viii. Worldwide. It is worthwhile to have sister-churches in various regions e.g., Europe, Asia, Africa, North and South America, to better understand the needs of each part of the world, support missions and have a faithful church through whom aid can be sent in the event of a crisis. This criterion would be particularly used for churches in regions where we have no existing church relationships.
- c) Manageable. When moving forward in a church relation, we must be able to manage the relationship and do justice to the rules for maintaining the relationship. This may involve the following aspects:
- i. Geographical proximity. It is important to maintain a good and appropriate level of contact in a church relationship and this involves interaction and visits on a regular basis. Although there are very good virtual and online means for communicating, there is no substitute or better interaction than through direct face to face communication. Churches closer together geographically or in the same country are better able to manage contacts and communications than churches more distant or dispersed geographically. For example, note that our FRCA bond of churches is geographically located in one country, Australia, albeit some 1000s of kilometres apart from west to east. As another example, note how the contact of FRCA with the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in Tasmania lies essentially with the churches in Tasmania and not via the other churches located elsewhere in Australia. Our focus should start locally in our own country, before going further abroad in the Asia/Pacific region, and then in the rest of the world.
 - ii. Language and culture. Where there are differences in language and/or culture, there may be much work required in translating materials and speeches or researching history and culture to understand, be informed and build a better appreciation and awareness of each other within a church relationship. Are we able to put in sufficient time and effort with appropriate tools and persons to manage this relation?
 - iii. Ability to resource. Are we able, as a relatively small bond of churches, able to resource the time and effort needed to maintain our church relationships and even increase the number of church relations? We must be mindful that our ministers and elders need to, in the first place, spend sufficient time and energy in their own congregations and in our own bond of churches. Many relations mean many trips, visits, meetings, readings and writings for which we must ensure we have sufficient attention, time and energy in order to do justice to our relationship according to the rules.

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 95)

Ecclesiastical Contact

Synod decides:

1. Adopt a contact relationship called “Ecclesiastical Contact” which:
 - a. Is extended to a church whom the FRCA have recognised as true and faithful but for whom the relationship, although meaningful, is deemed not sufficiently manageable to establish a sister church relationship at this point of time.
 - b. Is maintained on an ongoing basis by the FRCA by having some contact directly with the church, meeting them at synods or meetings of our churches or sister churches, or using other opportunities for contact that are available to us. This level of interaction would be substantially less than that for churches who are in a sister church relationship with us.
 - c. Can be changed to a sister church relationship should the FRCA deem that the relationship is sufficiently meaningful and manageable.
2. Adopt the following Rules for Exercising Ecclesiastical Contact:

Rules for Exercising Ecclesiastical Contact

1. Ecclesiastical contact shall be used, as much as opportunity for contact arises, to be informed about one another and grow in the understanding of each other, assisting, encouraging and exhorting one another to live as churches of God in this world.
2. The churches shall inform each other of the decisions taken by their broadest assemblies, if possible by sending each other their Acts or their Minutes and, otherwise, at least by sending the decisions relevant to their respective churches (if possible in translation).
3. The churches shall acknowledge one another's attestations and additionally interview these members in their doctrine and conduct (CO Art 57); this also applies to admitting the members of the respective churches to the sacraments.
4. The churches shall ordinarily not open their pulpits to ministers with whom we have Ecclesiastical Contact, unless due diligence is undertaken by consistory, and where it is only for one or two Sundays. Where it is for a more extended or recurring period of time (e.g. several weeks or months), concurring advice be requested and received from classis.
5. The churches shall receive each other's delegates at their broadest assemblies and invite them to sit as observers according to the Rules for Synods.
3. Mandate deputies to report to next Synod any further reflections and recommendations regarding the workability of the category of Ecclesiastical Contact and suggested Guidelines for Church Relations (Guidelines) connected with it.

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 95)

Multiple Churches in Geographic Proximity

Synod decides:

The FRCA may consider and pursue a relationship with a church in geographic proximity of a recognized true and faithful church, unless it is unwilling or shows no evidence of seeking and expressing unity with that church.

(Darling Downs 2024, Article 95)

2. The churches shall mutually care for each other that they do not depart from the reformed faith in doctrine, church polity, discipline and liturgy.
3. The churches shall inform each other of the decisions taken by their broadest assemblies, if possible by sending each other their Acts or their Minutes and, otherwise, at least by sending the decisions relevant to the respective churches (if possible in translation).
4. The churches shall give account to each other concerning the establishing of relations with third parties.
5. The churches shall accept one another's attestations, which also means admitting the members of the respective churches to the sacraments upon presentation of these attestations.
6. The churches shall in principle open their pulpits to each other's ministers in agreement with the rules adopted by the respective church federations. Also the churches agree in principle to the possibility of calling each other's ministers, while the churches reserve for themselves the right to maintain their own rules in connection with the extension and approval of calls.
7. In cases of substantial changes or additions to the confession, church order or liturgical forms this intention shall be brought to the special attention of the sister churches, so that as much consultation as possible can take place before a final decision is reached.
8. The churches shall receive each other's delegates at their broadest assemblies and invite them to sit as advisers, as much as possible.

(Bedfordale 1992, Article 95 sub 3)

Reformed Churches of New Zealand (RCNZ)

Synod decides:

to instruct deputies to write to the next Synod of The Reformed Churches of New Zealand to point out to these churches that their sister church relationship with, for instance, The Reformed Churches of Australia, as well as their second level correspondence with the G.K.N.(Synodical) are impediments to continue the existing contact.

(Launceston 1985, Art.75)

Synod decides:

- to convey its thanks to the R.C.N.Z. that it has terminated all ties with the G.K.N.(Syn.) and that it has decided to oppose very strongly the membership of the G.K.N.(Syn.) in the R.E.S. as well as to withdraw from the R.E.S. if the G.K.N.(Syn.) is not expelled.
- to instruct deputies to continue the contact with the R.C.N.Z., and specifically to call their attention to relations with other churches with which we have broken all ties.

(Albany 1987, Art.105)

Synod decides:

- 2. to express its joy over the obedience granted to the RCNZ in withdrawing from the REC;
- 5. to maintain the contact at the present level, in order that the FRCA may be a hand and a foot in the struggle by the RCNZ to preserve the Reformed faith in their churches, to address the obstacles that kept us apart in the past and to continue the discussions about their relations with third parties with whom we do not have any official relations such as the RCA (The Reformed Churches of Australia, Ed.) and the CRCNA (The Christian Reformed Churches of North America, Ed.) and the contacts with the NGK (The Nederlands Gereformeerde Kerken, Ed.), since if these contacts continue indefinitely they will be an impediment to continuing contacts between the FRCA and RCNZ;
- 6. to adopt deputies' recommendations regarding more direct contacts with the RCNZ, and to permit the deputies to visit the RCNZ in order to clearly address the impediments mentioned in Recommendation 5;
- 7. to consult with the Dutch deputies in order to coordinate our contacts.

(Armada 1990, Art.53).

Synod decides:

- 2. to express its appreciation for the manner in which the RCNZ deputies have responded to the issues raised by our deputies and for the invitation to be represented in their forthcoming Synod.
- 3. to appoint new deputies with the following mandate:
 - a. to maintain contact at the present level and to assess the RCNZ's commitment towards resolving the issues that have kept us apart (cf. Acts 1990, Article 53, Recommendation 5);
 - b. to liaise with the deputies of the RCNZ, especially with regards to third parties.

(Bedfordale 1992, Art.84)

Synod decides:

- 2. to continue contacts with the RCNZ at the present level.
- 3. to work towards a resolution about third parties, so that the way can be opened toward sister relations.
- 4. how the relation of the RCNZ with the RCA should impact our relation with the RCNZ.

(Byford 1994, Art.78).

Synod decides:

- 1. Synod notes with thankfulness that the recent Synod of the RCNZ could acknowledge the FRCA as true churches of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 2. Synod declares its gratitude for the faithfulness which deputies have found in the RCNZ.
- 3. Synod declares its appreciation for the principled approach which the RCNZ have shown in dealing with third parties by their encouragement and establishment of relations with faithful churches and by their admonition and if necessary breaking of ties with unfaithful churches.
- 4. To strive for a sister church relation with the RCNZ.

Synod mandates deputies to:

- i. encourage the RCNZ to continue with their admonitions to the RCA, and to terminate relations with the RCA if these admonitions continue to go unheeded,
- ii. clearly explain to the RCNZ the reasons for this Synod's decisions, taking into account comments in paragraph 5.3 of Deputies report and the decision of Synod Launceston 1985 (Article 67).
- iii. investigate the developments leading to the formation of the Geneva Free Reformed Church of Auckland,

- iv. attend the next Synod of the RCNZ if invited, and
- v. invite delegates from the RCNZ to attend the next Synod of the FRCA as observers with the privileges mentioned in Acts Synod Bedfordale 1992, Article 19, Recommendation 2b. (Kelmscott 1996, Art.53).

Synod decides:

1. To thank Deputies for the work they have done, and to discharge them.
2. To reaffirm its gratitude for the faithfulness which deputies have found in The Reformed Churches of New Zealand.
3. To mandate Deputies to strive for sister church relations with The Reformed Churches of New Zealand by:
 - (a) continuing dialogue with them in order to:
 - express our appreciation for the principled approach they have shown in dealing with The Reformed Churches of Australia, and to encourage them to continue to exercise sisterly admonitions over The Reformed Churches of Australia where needed.
 - explain to them by means of face-to-face meetings the difficulty that our churches have in establishing sister relations with them because of their sister relations with The Reformed Churches of Australia.
 - b) authorising two delegates to attend the next synod of The Reformed Churches of New Zealand to be held DV in Wainuimata, New Zealand from 17th to 23rd October, 1998, in order to convey greetings and to take the opportunity to discuss matters of mutual interest with the NZ deputies.
 - c) inviting delegates from The Reformed Churches of New Zealand to our next synod as observers with the privileges mentioned in Rule 6 of our Rules for Synods (Acts 1998, Appendix IV).
 - d) providing information to the membership of our churches about The Reformed Churches of New Zealand.

(Launceston 1998, Art.89).

Synod decides: (The following decision refers to a proposal of the church of West Albany "to recognise The Reformed Churches of New Zealand as true and faithful churches of our Lord Jesus Christ", and "offer to enter into a fraternal relationship with the RCNZ" according to a number of rules, which proposal was defeated by Synod. Ed.)

To agree in principle to the proposal of West Albany, but to postpone the implementation of this decision until next Synod in order to give deputies the opportunity:

- a. to see whether the RCNZ will enter into fraternal relationship with the FRCA;
- b. to elicit and assess responses from the churches regarding this decision;
- c. to consider what changes will need to be made to the CO (eg. Art.57) and other ecclesiastical rules and regulations regarding the establishment of fraternal relations;
- d. To appoint deputies with the new mandate:
 - I. Encourage the RCNZ to study the appeal sent to the CRCA in order to understand why the FRCA has principle objections in establishing relations with the CRCA and therefore this continues the impediment to forming sister relations with the RCNZ.
 - II. Continue to dialogue with the RCNZ on matters of common concern.
 - III. Authorise two delegates to attend the next Synod of the RCNZ.
 - IV. Invite delegates of the RCNZ to our next Synod.
 - V. Keep the churches informed of any developments in the RCNZ.

(West Albany 2000, Art.93)

Synod decides:

1. Not to proceed with the decision in principle to offer fraternal relations
2. To confirm what the 2000 Synod said in principle, namely, to recognise that the RCNZ are true churches of the Lord Jesus Christ,
3. To ask the RCNZ for time and patience so that we can discuss the matter of third parties and the implications of an offer of sister relation with them, and that we can offer sister relations with unity and joy

4. To recognise that the only remaining difficulty with entering into a relationship with the RCNZ is the relationship of the RCNZ with the CRCA
5. To assess the situation with respect to this relation at an upcoming synod to see if this remains a difficulty to entering into full sister-church relations or not
6. To appoint deputies with the following mandate:
 - a. to convey these decisions to the RCNZ
 - b. to assess to what extent the triangular relationship needs to be an impediment for entering into full sister-church relations and to report back to the churches on this six months before the next synod
 - c. to intensify dialogue with the RCNZ on matters of common concern and interest, also by inter-synodical visits, if the synodical budget allows
 - d. to invite the RCNZ to send delegate(s) to our next synod, and to authorise deputies to send two delegates to the next synod of the RCNZ
 - e. to keep the churches informed of any developments in the RCNZ and to encourage the churches to become better acquainted with the RCNZ by way of literature and visits

(Rockingham, 2003, Article 72)

Synod decides:

2. To renew the mandate of deputies to strive for relations with the Reformed Churches of New Zealand by:
 - a. Monitoring the relationship between the RCNZ and the CRCA, and to encourage the RCNZ to continue to admonish the CRCA where necessary.
 - b. Authorising two delegates to attend the next Synod of the RCNZ, in order to convey greetings and discuss matters of mutual interest.
 - c. Reassuring the RCNZ that it is our sincere desire to enter into a sister relationship with them but the matter of a triangular relationship with the CRCA remains an impediment.
 - d. Inviting delegates of the RCNZ to our next Synod as observers with the privileges mentioned in rules 6 of our "Rules for Synods" (Acts 1998, Appendix 12).
 - e. Providing information to the membership of our churches about the Reformed Churches of New Zealand.
3. To encourage consistories to take note, and act on, Synod's positive view towards the RCNZ in regard to practical support and interaction where these are not restricted to those between sister churches only, e.g. application of membership from former members of the RCNZ, matters pertaining to the mission field and theological and Christian education.
4. To convey Synod's decisions to RCNZ.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 102)

Synod decides:

2. To confirm what was said by Synod 2003, namely to recognise that the RCNZ are true churches of the Lord Jesus Christ.
3. To note that no substantial progress has been made in the understanding between the FRCA and RCNZ on the matter of the importance of the impediment which prevents the FRCA from entering into a sister relationship with the RCNZ.
4. To affirm that Synod's positive view towards the RCNZ has consequences in practical support and interaction. e.g. working together on the PNG mission field and supporting the theological training at the Bible College in PNG.
5. To renew the mandate of deputies to strive for sister-relations with the RCNZ by:
 - a. Monitoring the relationship between the RCNZ and the CRCA;
 - b. Encouraging the RCNZ to continue to admonish the CRCA and be consequential in this relationship.
 - c. To discuss with the RCNZ their decision made at Synod Hasting 2008, which says that the RCNZ "cannot accept that their sister-church relationship with the CRCA should be an impediment to the FRCA accepting their offer of sister-church relations".
 - d. Authorising two delegates to attend the next Synod of the RCNZ, in order to convey greetings and discuss matters of mutual interest.

- e. Reassuring the RCNZ that it is our sincere desire to enter into a sister relationship with them but the matter of their sister relationship with the CRCA remains an impediment.
- f. Inviting delegates of the RCNZ to our next Synod as observers with the privileges mentioned in rules 6 of our "Rules for Synods" (Acts 1998, Appendix 12).
- g. Providing information about the RCNZ to the membership of our churches.
- 6. To deny the overture of FRC Mt Nasura.
- 7. To decline the invitation of the RCNZ that we attend as observers at the meeting of the ICRC to be held DV in September 2009 in Christchurch.

(Legana 2009, Article 63)

Synod decides:

- 1. To confirm what was said by Synod 2000 (Acts Article 93), namely, to recognize that the RCNZ are true churches of the Lord Jesus Christ, and to express our continued resolve to work towards the goal of a sister church relationship, and thereby bring our unity in faith to practical and visible expression.
- 2. To continue to encourage our local churches to exercise practical support and interaction wherever possible in areas that are not reserved for relationships between sister churches.
- 3. To acknowledge that the RCNZ decided to change its relationship with the CRCA (Minutes of the Acts RCNZ Synod 2011, Art. 93 pp1-24) "... 3. To discontinue the sister church relationship with the CRCA and establish instead a relationship of Ecclesiastical Fellowship."
- 4. Not to accept the deputies proposal to enter into fraternal relations with the RCNZ.
- 5. To discharge deputies, thank them for their work and to appoint new deputies with the mandate to:
 - a. convey Synod's decisions to the RCNZ and provide to the RCNZ a copy of the Acts of Synod Armadale 2012;
 - b. observe and report on the continuing faithfulness of the RCNZ in doctrine, church polity, discipline and liturgy;
 - c. determine how the nature and practical implications of the RCNZ's new relationship of Ecclesiastical Fellowship with the CRCA differs from their previous sister church relationship and evaluate how this impacts on the impediment identified by previous Synods;
 - d. encourage the RCNZ to continue to be consequential in their relationship with the CRCA;
 - e. invite delegates of the RCNZ to our next Synod;
 - f. upon invitation attend the next Synod of the RCNZ with two deputies and endeavour to meet with the inter-church relations committee of the RCNZ at least twice within the inter-synodical period, in order to stay well-informed about the RCNZ (pending budget constraints);
 - g. provide information about the RCNZ to the membership of our churches and keep the churches informed about the decisions of the RCNZ and the work of the deputies.
- 6. That these decisions adequately address submissions from FRC Byford, FRC Darling Downs and FRC Mt Nasura.

(Southern River, 2012, Article 89)

Synod decides:

1. Continue the sister church relationship with the RCNZ, under the established rules;
2. Make the churches in our bond aware of the practical obstacles that have been identified in relation to the support of retired ministers, which in some cases makes calling each other's ministers difficult, and encourage the churches to engage with the Emeritus Fund to consult with the RCNZ counterpart, in an effort to find a mutually satisfactory solution that would remove these obstacles, so that this aspect of the sister church relationship can function in a meaningful way.
3. Discharge deputies and thank them for their work, and to appoint new deputies with the following mandate:
 - a. monitor developments within the RCNZ for mutual benefit according to the established "Rules for Sister Church Relations", and maintain the contact necessary in exercising the relationship according to these rules;

D. CONTACT CHURCHES

Synod decides:

As there should be only one form of permanent ecclesiastical fellowship between sister churches, and this under the mutually accepted rules for correspondence, any rules for temporary ecclesiastical contact should make clear that the contact has as its ultimate aim the establishment of a sister-church relationship.

(Launceston 1985, Article 74 sub II)

Synod decides:

5. to discontinue offering "temporary ecclesiastical contact" and to ask deputies to work towards sister relations with those churches with whom we presently have temporary ecclesiastical contact.

(Bedfordale 1992, Article 95)

Synod decides:

To instruct deputies for correspondence with foreign sister churches:

6. to be diligent in seeking contact with those churches which are faithful to the Scriptures, and to see if we can enter into correspondence with them.

Closer contacts with geographically close churches will be developed wherever possible.

Sumba, Sri Lanka and Taiwan are mentioned in this context.

(Armada 1980, Article 53)

3. that the Deputies for Correspondence with Foreign Sister Churches appointed by Synod 1985 be instructed to thoroughly investigate the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Taiwan, the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Ireland, and The Free Church of Scotland, and submit comprehensive reports to the churches and to the next Synod, paying particular attention to the marks of the true Church and the question of Church government.
4. Until the next Synod has dealt with the above-mentioned study, contact with these churches shall be maintained at the present level.

(Launceston 1985, Article 43)

Synod decides:

Synod decides to follow the policy with respect to the mandates for deputies for relations with other churches:

- a) to limit the requirements of the relative mandates to a manageable level;
- b) to limit present contacts and relations with churches which are geographically close to our sister churches abroad and with churches which we have recognised as true and faithful to the minimum level necessary for us to remain acquainted with their situation and to fulfil our obligations made to them;
- c) to concentrate on relations and contacts with churches who are geographically closer to us and for whom we have a greater responsibility;
- d) to phase out contact with churches with whom we appear to be making no progress.

(Armada 1990, Article 58)

Synod decides:

1. to acknowledge with past Synods that there have been inconsistencies and ambiguities in past decisions which have led to disquiet and division in the churches.

 - c. how in a manageable and responsible way the FRCA can fulfil their obligations towards churches geographically/culturally far away;
 - 2.2 to authorise deputies to organise a conference for the churches to discuss the contact with Presbyterian churches as broadly as possible;
 - 2.3 to report back to the churches when the mandate is finished;
 - 2.4 to continue contact/relations with the PCEA, FCS, EPCI and RPCI at a low level (passing on Acts and greetings, etc.), leaving the discussions in abeyance.

(Byford 1994, Article 111)

Synod decides:

1. To renew the same mandate as given by Synod 1994 and to encourage deputies to fulfil their mandate for the next Synod.
2. To mandate the deputies to incorporate in their study the progress there has been in the synod reports and decisions by our sister churches.

(Kelmescott 1996, Article 96)

Synod decides:

To assess the areas of concern with respect to the contacts which The Free Reformed Churches of Australia have with the Free Church of Scotland, the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Ireland and the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Ireland. E . DISCONTINUED RELATIONSHIPS AND CONTACTS

Australia

Australian Council of Reformed Churches

Synod decides:

The text of our reply to the letter from the "Australian Council of Reformed Churches" - compare Article 15 of these Acts - is determined. This reply will be added to these Acts as Appendix 2.

(Editor's note: This letter ends as follows: "Considering these matters, we must conclude that your council in its composition and course does not offer sufficient guarantee for a co-operation, which must be based on the truth of God and in obedience to the Word of God. If your council bypasses these serious objections and prohibitive facts, and leaves them for what they are, we must conclude that it cannot commence its primary task, namely the seeking of the true unity of faithful believers in Christ, but that the council itself forms an obstacle to unity. Synod brings these matters to your attention, because on the one hand she rejects an aspiration towards an unholy and self-willed isolation, but on the other hand she rejects a co-operation which indeed suggests a unity but without sufficient guarantees of its Scriptural truth. Synod expresses the hope that you will consider these matters seriously and wishes you God's blessing in this.")

(Albany 1968, Art.66)

(Christian) Reformed Churches of Australia

Synod decides:

A response will be sent to the deputies appointed by Synod Dandenong of The Reformed Churches of Australia. Synod decides to insert this letter as an Appendix into the Acts.

(Albany 1959, Art.44)

Synod decides:

to include only the latest correspondence with The Reformed Churches of Australia in the Acts. (Editor's note: The letter sent to the RCA by Synod 1966 ends with the following sentence: "As long as you continue to sidestep a serious answer to these things we must remain in concluding that your desire for unity is not Scriptural and true and that therefore you are guilty of blocking the way which can lead to the Scriptural unity".)

(Armada 1966, Art.58)

Synod decides:

to appoint deputies with the mandate to engage in dialogue as stipulated in Considerations 2, 4, 5.

Considerations:

2. (partly, GvR) Thus the RCA has definitely broken with the GKN(S) and has correspondence, i.e. writes letters, only to keep the channels of communication open. Also, the RCA family sees that its association with the GKN(S) through the REC needs to be undone. These developments are strong evidence that a reconsideration for personal contact with the RCA is warranted.

4. The agenda for such dialogue should be pre-set in accordance with past decisions of the FRCA Synods. The impediments toward unity between the FRCA and the RCA have been clearly spelled out by past Synods (cf. the 1959 and 1962 Synods which approved letters to the RCA, letters which are appended to the Acts of those Synods). The 1962 RCA Synod authorised its deputies to answer the correspondence. In the latter they themselves spell out the FRCA's conditions 'sine qua non' for reunion:

a. "the recognition from our side (RCA) of the Liberation as an unmistakable work of God;" and

b. "the breaking of all correspondence (i.e. sister-relations) with the GKN(S)" (quoted from the 1964 Acts, p.23; translation is ours).

5. The present generation ought to be made aware of past (sinful) decisions taken by their Synods. It is a scriptural principle that "the LORD visits the iniquity of the fathers upon the children" and that as much as possible the past should be undone by not maintaining the past wrongs and by steering a new course in their relations.

(Armada 1990, Art.102)

Synod decides

1. To thank deputies for the immense amount of work done in making available in the English language the documents relevant to the Liberation of 1944 and the contacts between the FRCA and the RCA.
3. To appoint new deputies with the mandate to observe what the next Synod of the RCA will do with the report which their deputies for dialogue with the FRCA will submit, and to report to the next Synod of the FRCA with their recommendations as to whether and how to proceed.

(Bedfordale 1992, Art.78)

Synod decides:

1. Not to accept the request of the RCA to send an official observer to the forthcoming synod of the RCA.
2. Deputies are given the mandate to inform the RCA of synod's decision incorporating as reason: Recommendation 3 of Article 38, Synod Armada 1990, but noting also the developments signalled in Article 102. Deputies are free to request attendance at the RCA Synod on an individual title.

(Byford 1994, Art.118)

Synod decides:

1. To accept the decision of the 1994 RCA Synod that their sister relations with the GKN(S) seen in the historical light of the doctrinal and church-political controversies and the subsequent Liberation of 1944, were unjust, inconsequential and the express cause for lack of unity; this ends the discussion concerning the events of the fifties and sixties.

2. Not to enter official contact (which has sister relations or union as its aim) with the RCA at this time.
3. To authorise deputies to send a letter of appeal to the 1997 RCA Synod and to all their sessions, appealing to them to return to a distinctively reformed direction so that future contact may become possible and can be meaningful.

(Kelmscott 1996, Art.71)

Synod decides:

1. To thank the Deputies for their work and discharge them.
2. To appoint new Deputies with the mandate to convey our concerns and appeal by a few face-to-face meetings.
3. To report back to the next synod.

(Launceston 1998, Art.78)

Synod decides:

1. To thank deputies for the completion of their mandate.
2. To reappoint deputies and given them this mandate:
 - a) To receive the Christian Reformed Churches of Australia's anticipated appeal to the FRCA, to seek clarification regarding this appeal if necessary, and to forward the CRCA's appeal to our next Synod with a recommended response.
 - b) To address the CRCA Synod about recent decisions of the CRCA regarding women in the office of deacon, children at the Lord's Supper, their amendment of the CO restricting the binding character of the CO, and the decision of Classis Tasmania of the CRCA to allow Rev.FJ van Hulst to preach in that classical resort, explaining why these decisions are in error.

(West Albany 2000, Art.72)

Japan

Reformed Church of Japan

Synod decides:

to investigate whether The Reformed Church of Japan and The Dutch Reformed Church of Sri Lanka can be recognized as true and faithful churches.

(Kelmscott 1983, Art.76)

Synod decides:

- (a) to investigate whether or not The Reformed Church of Japan and The Presbyterian Church in Uganda can be recognized as true and faithful churches according to Article 29 of the Belgic Confession with a view to the possible establishment of sister church relations;

(Launceston 1985, Art.76)

Synod decides:

3. to renew the mandate (...) with respect to the R.C.J. and the P.C.U.

(Albany 1987, Art.92).

Synod decides:

1. to cease further contacts with the RCJ.
2. to inform the PCK of this decision.

(Armada 1990, Art.121)

Netherlands

The Reformed Churches in the Netherlands (RCN)

Synod decides:

1. To continue sister-relations with The Reformed Churches in The Netherlands according to the adopted Rules for Sister-Relations;
2. To discharge deputies and to appoint new deputies with the mandate to:
 - a. Exercise sister-relations with the RCN according to the adopted rules;
 - b. According to the rules, discuss with the RCN deputies some concerns as to the developments within the RCN;
 - c. Authorise deputies to attend the next general Synod of the RCN;
 - d. Report to next Synod;
3. To expand the deputyship by one additional minister.

(West Albany 2000, Article 87)

Synod decides:

I. Fourth Commandment and Sunday

2. To acknowledge with thanks that the mandates to stay informed about developments and decisions in the RCN about the Sabbath/Sunday issue and to continue the discussions with the RCN on this matter have been amply fulfilled.
3. To accept Amersfoort's decision as largely allaying our concerns.
4. To have deputies monitor the application of this decision, seeing there are still concerns about its application and clarity of Sunday, Lordly Day. A Pastoral Guideline.

II. Divorce and Remarriage

1. To express thankfulness that our Dutch sister churches could take a strong Scriptural stance regarding God's teachings against divorce and remarriage.
2. To express regret that, while the issue regarding the approval of divorces for reasons beyond the Scriptural reasons of adultery and wilful desertion was not endorsed by synod and thus implicitly excluded, synod did not explicitly state this.

III. Liturgy and Hymns

1. To express appreciation for not developing a separate order of worship on the basis of the Ordinarium texts.
2. To express appreciation for not releasing for use in the churches the order of worship for the "leerdienst" (teaching-service) as presented by the deputies.
3. To express concerns about the continuing proliferation and the contents of the hymns from the "liedboek voor de kerken", and to continue to suggest more time be spent on the Psalms and on songs based directly on Scripture.
4. To keep monitoring RCN's decisions in accordance with our Rule b (to mutually care for each other that they do not depart from the reformed faith in liturgy) and to become more acquainted, in a selective manner, with the hymns that are approved and are being approved.

IV. Sacraments in Military Situations

To express our concerns to the Dutch sister churches that GS Amersfoort's decision regarding the administration of both sacraments for military personnel goes beyond the common consent of the Church Order and leads to the danger of interdenominational (against Article 28, B.C.) administration of sacraments.

V. Nederlands Gereformeerde Kerken (NGK) and Christelijke Gereformeerde Kerken (CGK) (Refer to Article 66)

Regarding CGK:

1. To encourage our sister-churches in their pursuit of unity with the CGK to do so on the proven basis of God's Word as confessed in the Three Forms of Unity and as practiced by the Church Order of Dort.
2. To monitor further developments and to report to the next synod.

Regarding RCN:

1. To encourage the RCN in their contacts with the NGK to continue to insist on the need within the NGK for binding to God's Word as confessed in The Three Forms of Unity, and also to insist on the proper place of the Church Order to counteract independentism.
2. To express thanks that the RCN carefully assessed the request to reconsider the decisions of GS Amersfoort-West (1967) and Hoogeveen (1969/70).
3. To encourage the RCN to pursue the recent developments in the NGK for justifying women as elders and ministers, since this is a barrier to unity.
4. To keep in close contact with the Dutch Deputies and to report to the next synod.

VI. Overall

1. To continue sister-relations with the Reformed Churches in the Netherlands according to the adopted Rules for Sister-Relations.
2. To express our thankfulness to the RCN churches regarding the openness and frankness in which their deputies and ours could be engaged in concerns and discussions.
3. To urge the RCN to engage in meaningful dialogue with the RCN(R) churches, having a greater understanding of their concerns and grievances, and Scripturally and confessionally to address these concerns in humility and love.
4. To express our concerns regarding the directions being taken, particularly in regard to the manner in which Scripture and the commandments are interpreted and applied to today's circumstances, taking into account decisions made by our synods.
5. To discharge Deputies and to appoint new Deputies with the mandate to:
 - a. exercise sister-relations with the RCN according to the adopted rules;
 - b. discuss with the RCN the nature and cause underlying the directions being taken by their churches as expressed above;
 - c. discuss with the RCN Deputies the concerns as to the developments within the RCN, including:
 - i. those that deputies have already been busy with, and the decisions already made by Synod West Kelmscott 2006, so that this work does not need to be done all over again;
 - ii. the RCN dealings with views on hermeneutics, work of the Holy Spirit and the application of church discipline;
 - iii. the influence of the charismatic movement on the RCN;
 - d. implement decision 3;
 - e. report to next Synod;
 - f. send two delegates to the next Synod of the RCN.

(West Kelmscott 2006, Art. 94)

Synod decides:

1. To take a comprehensive approach with regards to this Synod's decision about the sister church relationship with the RCN, instead of dealing separately and in detail with every agenda item relating to this sister church relationship.
2. Continue the sister church relations with the RCN under the adopted rules.
3. Express our thankfulness to the RCN regarding the openness and frankness in which their deputies and ours could be engaged in concerns and discussions.
4. Exhort the RCN with love and care to be faithful in their approach to hermeneutics and combating the influence of a post-modern 'spirit of the age' (Ground 3). As specific examples, we mention the following:
 - a. Our ongoing concerns about the position of our Dutch sister Churches on connecting the fourth commandment to the Lord's Day as a day of rest, as we confess in Q/A 103 of the HC.
 - b. Our concerns that the public comments of Dr. Harinck have not been retracted, even though he remains a professor in Kampen.
 - c. Our ongoing concerns regarding the administration of both sacraments for military personnel (refer art. 94, Acts of Synod West Kelmscott).

5. Express and discuss our concerns regarding trends towards unfaithfulness to Scripture, Confessions and Church Order mentioned in Grounds 3-5.
6. To discharge deputies and thank them for their work and to appoint new deputies with the mandate to use the adopted Rules for Sister Church Relations to discuss with the RCN deputies BBK:
 - a. Matters raised in Decisions 4, 5 and 7,
 - b. The concerns expressed in the Report of Rev M Nap of which Synod has pronounced to agree with the desire of further hermeneutic study,
 - c. The way deputies Male/Female in the church formulate and discuss within the RCN the framework in which men and serve in pastoral and diaconal tasks,
 - d. Our ongoing concerns regarding the RCN decisions on Divorce and Remarriage (refer Art 94, Acts of Synod West Kelmscott 2006),
 - e. The continuing proliferation and the contents of new hymns,
 - f. The view of the RCN towards recent developments in the NGK for justifying women as elders and ministers, since this is a barrier to unity,
 - g. The need for the RCN to uphold the plain meaning of Scripture regarding Genesis 1-11,
 - h. The concern regarding the signs of independentism as mentioned in Ground 4.
7. To share with the RCN the observation that their current direction is placing tension on our sister church relationship.
8. Call on the FRCA to frequently remember the RCN in their prayers in view of the continuing tensions within the RCN and between the RCN and the FRCA.
9. To beseech the Lord by his grace and blessings to heal the ecclesiastical divisions between the RCN and RCNr.
10. Send two delegates to the next Synod of the RCN and provide a synopsis of synod decisions for the benefit of our Australian churches.

(Legana 2009, Article 71)

Synod decides:

I. Decision

1. To present to the RCN an official admonition stating our concerns.
This admonition will be a statement of weighty objections with respect to the doctrine and practice of the RCN in line with the rules for sister church relations.
2. To appoint an advisory committee consisting of brothers chosen by synod to formulate the admonition paying special attention to items that have had deputies' special attention such as:
 - a. Hermeneutics
 - b. Ethics
 - c. Sacraments
 - d. Ecclesiology

 - f. Liturgy

The committee is to take into account the responses already received from the RCN. This is to be done in consultation with the Canadian Reformed Church deputies CRCA according to Article 86, Synod Burlington 2010 and the DRCA of the FRCSA according to Article 19.4 of Synod Pretoria 2011.
3. The advisory committee is to report to synod delegates by 1 March 2013.
4. Synod is to reconvene on 22 April 2013 so that this official admonition can be tabled for adoption and so that synod can formulate its decision on how to proceed with our relationship with the RCN.

II. Decision

To only publish the headings in Item 2 in the Acts. Details under the headings to be forwarded to the Advisory Committee.

(Armadale 2012, Article 116)

I. Final Decision: [re Letter of Admonition to Reformed Churches of the Netherlands (RCN) (Refer Articles 29, 40, 43, 57, 76, 94, 114, 116, 141, 142)]

(Armadale 2012, Second Session, Article 142)

Synod decides:

1. To suspend our relationship with the RCN. This suspension applies to the rules of our sister church relationship agreement:
 - a. "Rule e) The churches shall accept one another's attestations, which also means admitting the members of the respective churches to the sacraments upon presentation of these attestations." To accept attestations only from those members of the RCN whom the consistory is convinced are faithful in doctrine and conduct, and to issue attestations to the RCN with due care.
 - b. "Rule f) The churches shall in principle open their pulpits to each other's ministers in agreement with the rules adopted by the respective church federations." To deny ministers from the RCN the privilege of preaching in our federation, or to be called to serve in the FRCA unless the call is approved by Classis.
 - c. "Rule h) The churches shall receive each other's delegates at their broadest assemblies and invite them to sit as advisers, as much as possible." Delegates from the RCN will be invited to attend our next Synod and be accorded the privileges as per rules for Synod 6.2.

 - a. to express our deep sadness at the response of Synod Ede to our letter of admonition sent by Synod Armadale and advise of the suspension of our sister church relationship;

ARTICLE 68 - Funerals

Church services shall not be conducted for funerals.

IV CHURCH DISCIPLINE

ARTICLE 69 - Aim of discipline

Church discipline shall be exercised in accordance with the Word of God and to His honour. Its aim is to reconcile the sinner with God and the neighbour, and to remove the offence from the church of Christ.

ARTICLE 70 - Mutual responsibility

If anyone departs from the pure doctrine or is delinquent in conduct and this is a secret matter which does not give rise to public offence, the rule which Christ clearly prescribes in Matthew 18 shall be observed.

ARTICLE 71 - Consistory involvement

The consistory shall not deal with any report of sin unless it has first ascertained that both private admonitions and admonitions in the presence of one or two witnesses have remained fruitless, or the sin committed is of a public character.

ARTICLE 72 - Repentance

When someone repents of a public sin or of a sin which had to be reported to the consistory, the latter shall not accept his confession of sin unless the member concerned shows real amendment. The consistory shall determine whether the congregation shall be informed afterwards.

ARTICLE 73 - Discipline in respect of communicant members

A communicant member who obstinately rejects the admonition by the consistory or who has committed a public or some other serious sin shall be suspended from the Lord's Supper. If he continues to harden himself in sin, the consistory shall publicly announce this to the congregation so that the congregation may be engaged in prayer and admonition and the excommunication may not take place without its cooperation.

ARTICLE 74 - Announcements during the procedure

In the first public announcement the name of the sinner shall not be mentioned. In the second public announcement, which shall be made only after the advice of classis has been obtained, the name and address of the sinner shall be mentioned. In the third public announcement a date shall be set at which the excommunication of the sinner shall take place in accordance with the adopted Form. The time interval between the various announcements shall be determined by the consistory.

ARTICLE 75 - Re-admission

When someone who has been excommunicated repents and desires to be again received into the communion of the church, the congregation shall be informed of this desire in order to see whether there are any lawful objections. The time between the public announcement and the re-admission of the sinner shall be not less than one month. If no lawful objection is raised the re-admission shall take place, with the use of the adopted Form.

ARTICLE 76 - Suspension and deposition of office-bearers

If a minister, elder or deacon has committed a public or otherwise gross sin, or refuses to heed the admonitions by the consistory, he shall be suspended from office by the judgment of his own consistory and of the consistory of a neighbouring congregation. In the case of a minister this neighbouring congregation shall be appointed by the classis. If he hardens himself in the sin, or if the sin committed is of such a nature that he cannot continue in office, an elder or a deacon shall be deposed by the judgment of the above-mentioned consistories. Classis, with the advice of the deputies of synod, shall judge whether a minister is to be deposed.

ARTICLE 77 - Serious and gross sins on the part of office-bearers

As serious and gross sins which are grounds for the suspension or deposition of office-bearers the following are to be mentioned particularly: False doctrine or heresy, public schisms, blasphemy, simony, faithless desertion of office or intrusion upon that of another, perjury, adultery, fornication, theft, acts of violence, habitual drunkenness, brawling, unjustly enriching oneself; and further all such sins and serious misdemeanours that rate as ground for excommunication with respect to other members of the church.

ARTICLE 78 - Christian censure

The ministers, elders, and deacons shall mutually exercise Christian censure and shall exhort and kindly admonish one another with regard to the execution of their office.

ARTICLE 79 - Discipline in respect of non-communicant members
A baptised member shall be admonished by the consistory when he as an adult fails to make public profession of faith or where in other respects he is not loyal to the calling to new obedience in God's covenant. If he obstinately rejects the admonition of the consistory and thereby clearly demonstrates that he is indifferent and averse to the covenant or is even hostile to the service of the Lord, the matter shall be made known to the congregation without mentioning the name of the sinner; and the congregation shall be urged to pray for him. If the member continues in sin and is unwilling to listen to the admonitions, then with the advice of the classis the consistory shall make a second public announcement, mentioning the name of the sinner and the term after which the excommunication shall take place. If he does not in the said term show any real repentance, the consistory shall in a church service exclude him from the communion of the church, using the adopted Form. If he, after this excommunication, comes to repentance and desires to rejoin the communion of the church, he shall be admitted by way of his public profession of faith after the consistory has made his repentance known to the congregation.

These articles, which regard the lawful order of the church, have been adopted with common accord. If the interest of the churches demands such, they may and ought to be changed, augmented or diminished.
